Cohen's the "Open Door"

FOR BARGAIN HUNTERS.

The system of special sales that we have been holding this month have surpassed our greatest expectations by their success. It has spurred us on each week to higher flights in price inducements. This week in addition to the big reductions in regular goods there are some new things our buyer has sent us from New York. They are marked for quick sales—not for shelf warmers.

DON'T MISS THE RUMMAGE COLUMN.

Cutting a Waist Is An Art.

Those who have done it will understand it better. Our expert do the work. It is as easy for her as sliding down hill. From the artistic standpoint it is the true pretty curves which give a waist its distinctive features and make it pretty.

It costs you nothing to have a waist cut. The bargains we are offering in waist fabrics makes one cost you a trifle.

Do You Want An Oil Painting Free?

The curious crowds collected in front of our windows shows the interest taken in an artist making a landscape scene in oil in a few minutes.

It don't cost you a cent to get one of these paintings. One will be given with every $5 purchase of merchandise.

The Rise in Wool Makes These Blankets a Bargain

We cannot possibly duplicate our Woolen Blankets or Wool-Filled Comforts at present prices. The rise in the price of wool has added 10 to 20 per cent. to the value of every Woolen Blanket here. Our prices hold because we have enough to last through this season.
